

WEEK BEGINNING:

World Book Day

World Book Day is on Thursday 2nd March!

As part of our celebrations, pupils are being asked to get creative and dress up as a character from their favourite book. We would love to see some really inventive thinking behind your costumes- wow us with your creativity! The teachers are dressing up too! There will be prizes per year group for the best character costume.

There is no payment required to join in; however, if you choose not to dress up as a character, normal uniform rules will apply.

English

This week we have been putting the finishing touches to our balanced arguments answering the question 'Should zoos exist?' All of the children have worked really hard at this piece of writing and have come up with some fabulous ideas as supporting evidence for each point for and against. Here are two of the best from 5RPU – Kieron Rose and Jack Robinson.

After half term, we will be studying poetry.

Maths

We are now coming to the end of our topic about fractions so have been recapping everything that we have done so far and testing our skills by applying our knowledge to real life problems. Everyone has been building on their reasoning skills; questioning and explaining their findings confidently.

After half term, we will recap everything we have done so far this year and then move on to decimals and percentages – the natural link to fractions.

Share Aware

Recently we have become very aware of the need to remind our pupils of how they can stay safe if they are online or using mobile phones. This week, pupils have been taught two lessons from the NSPCC on how to be Share Aware. We have attached a parent's guide to support you in keeping your children safe at home. For more information, please see the links to the NSPCC Share Aware advice on our website – go to the information tab and choose safeguarding.

Uniform

Please remember to check over the half term break that your child has all of the correct parts of the uniform and equipment. Girls should remember that they need to tie their hair up every day. There will be a uniform check on the first day back.

Attendance

97 children have had 100% attendance this half term – that is amazing!!! Well done to you all.

Remember:

Please ensure that your children do not bring their moon balls to school anymore as they have been banned.

ATTENDANCE

Well done 5KLA!
